WHAT DO YOU DO WITH THE MAD THAT YOU FEEL?

~ Debra Jacobs

In the first year, babies learn to explore, and learn about the world. They will want to explore and play with their baby will set the emotional development.

The real "Aha" affirmation moments came as speakers shared the voices and perspectives of actual people. My heart went to the voice and all the parents and care givers and the children hearing the stories, as they were very emotional. The parents and care givers had tears in their eyes as they listened to the stories. The children also were moved by the stories and many of them were very tearsful.

As children grow into early childhood, their world will begin exploring new objects and surroundings. Their desire to explore and "find out" is increasing.
