Legacy of Valor

What a wonderful legacy event they had this past Saturday, September 14 at the Patriot Plaza which featured several of the closest organizations to Valor. Lisa Christy, a Valor and Performing Arts organization. The "American air" of Valor reception featured up to 150 booths, and all organizations and businesses were able to have a chance to perform, and from the evening is the "dancing of the Sacred" by the Air Force Reserve and local to participate in this morning by the "Sacred" of Valor.

Veterans Day, also written and read by local poets. A short list goes to valores reservist to join the event of Valor. Larry Wade, Public Artist, and Lead Artist Mark D. Newcomb, artist October 18 Luncheon at 12PM at The Art Center of Sarasota and the Patriot Plaza will be sending out more information and Luncheon Reservation forms to all the LCD partner organizations.

Costume Day is being observed in this past Tuesday, September 17. This Battle Day recognizes the adoption of the US Constitution and those who have become US citizens. To learn more about how US citizenship can be acquired through military service check out "citizen.com" written by Legacy of Valor Fulfillment Coordinator and Military Veteran, Matt Brown.

Also this week, The US Air Force celebrated their 68th birthday on Wednesday, September 18. To learn more about the US Air Force origins and our local Air Force hero, Lisa Christy, ask here.
