COMING SOON: Census 2020 Primer

The Sarasota Herald-Tribune is producing a 32-page tab section that will be inserted into all copies of their paper on Sunday, March 15. The tab will also be available in PDF format with an abridged PDF version in Spanish. The Sarasota Herald-Tribune will make the tab available to other newspapers in Florida with the ability for local papers to sub in stories from their area.

The Patterson Foundation is supporting an overprint of the Primer to make copies available to the four-county area. Please contact Hannah Saeger Karnei if you have ideas on distributing the overprint or are interested in including the primer in your local paper.

From the Editor's Desk

THE EDGE: The census is upon us, and it's critical for you to participate by Matthew Sauer, executive editor and general manager, Sarasota Herald-Tribune

The U.S. Census is a big topic and there are about 1,019,000 reasons why folks living in Manatee, Sarasota, Charlotte, and DeSoto counties should be paying attention and — most importantly — participating. The million-plus figure is the U.S. Census Bureau's estimate of our combined four-county population. But is it the right figure?
