

ASPIRATIONS TO ACTIONS MOMENTS

Starting Turned Outward

The Sarasota Chamber is starting their book circle Turned Outward! The Chamber decided to recruit participants through their member newsletter, gathering a group of 11 from a diverse field of organizations.

In addition to the Chamber’s book circle, the Sarasota Young Professionals Group is also leading a book circle comprised of their leadership team. We can’t wait to hear these groups’ perspectives on #SteppingForward!

How did you find your circle members?

Don’t forget to join us for the #SteppingForwardChat!

Susan Nations and the Wilkinson Elementary book circle will be leading a Twitter chat from 7:30–8:30pm on December 16. You only need a Twitter profile to participate. See page two for details.

Shareable Moments From The Patterson Adjacents Book Circle

What happens when you gather individuals who work at the opera, a community foundation, newspaper, bank, and several community engagers from The Patterson Foundation? Group magic! The Patterson Adjacents (named because of the TPF-heavy population) brings together voices with unique perspectives from organizations across the community. Their magic happens at the Gulf Gate Library.

Where does your group meet?
